Surety

To be completed by each Director / Member / Trustee / Partner

1.	I, by my signature hereby (which appears below) do hereby bind myself in my private and individual capacity as surety for and co- principal debtor in solidum with the Applicant in favour of the Company for the due performance of any obligation of the Applicant and for the payment to the Company by the Applicant of any amounts which may now or at any time be or become owing to the Company by the Applicant.
2.	I understand that my liability for amounts owing by the Applicant to the Company is not limited to any credit limit granted by the Company to the Applicant.
3.	I acknowledge and understand that as surety and co-principal debtor, I waive and renounce the benefits to which I may be entitled to arising from the legal exceptions including, but not limited, to:- <table border="1" style="width: 100%; margin-top: 5px;"> <tr> <td style="width: 5%;">3.1</td> <td>Excursion – the right to require the Company to proceed first against the Applicant for payment of any debt owing to the Company before proceeding against the surety;</td> </tr> <tr> <td>3.2</td> <td>Cession of action – the right to require the Company to give cession of the action for payment of debts to the surety before any action against the surety may be taken;</td> </tr> <tr> <td>3.3</td> <td>The benefit of simultaneous citation and division of debt – the right of a co-surety to be liable only for his pro rata share of the principal debt;</td> </tr> <tr> <td>3.4</td> <td>The right to an accounting statement from the Company.</td> </tr> </table>	3.1	Excursion – the right to require the Company to proceed first against the Applicant for payment of any debt owing to the Company before proceeding against the surety;	3.2	Cession of action – the right to require the Company to give cession of the action for payment of debts to the surety before any action against the surety may be taken;	3.3	The benefit of simultaneous citation and division of debt – the right of a co-surety to be liable only for his pro rata share of the principal debt;	3.4	The right to an accounting statement from the Company.
3.1	Excursion – the right to require the Company to proceed first against the Applicant for payment of any debt owing to the Company before proceeding against the surety;
3.2	Cession of action – the right to require the Company to give cession of the action for payment of debts to the surety before any action against the surety may be taken;
3.3	The benefit of simultaneous citation and division of debt – the right of a co-surety to be liable only for his pro rata share of the principal debt;
3.4	The right to an accounting statement from the Company.
4.	The surety is given as a continuing covering surety for the present and future obligations of the Applicant to the Company.
5.	My liability in terms of this deed of surety is unlimited.
6.	The obligations of the Applicant under this agreement are mutatis mutandis applicable to this surety, more specifically, however not derogating from the generality hereof, indebtedness in respect of interest, finance charges and legal costs recoverable from the Applicant in terms of this agreement shall be recoverable to the same degree from the surety.
7.	I choose herewith as my domicilium citandi et executandi the same address as mentioned in clause 20 above.
8.	If the Company were to institute legal action against me to enforce the Company's rights in terms of this deed of surety. <table border="1" style="width: 100%; margin-top: 5px;"> <tr> <td style="width: 5%;">8.1</td> <td>I agree, in terms of the provisions of section 45 of the Magistrate's Courts Act 32 of 1944, to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate's Court that, according to section 28, has jurisdiction over his person, irrespective of the fact that the amount to be exacted or the value of the right that is to be protected exceeds the legal competence of the Magistrate's Court; and</td> </tr> <tr> <td>8.2</td> <td>I undertake to pay all the costs of such action on the scale as between attorney and client. The aforementioned costs include collection costs that may be legally recovered from the Company by the legal representatives of the Company on all amounts that the legal representatives collect receiver, whether before or after sentence has been imposed on the credit receiver.</td> </tr> </table>	8.1	I agree, in terms of the provisions of section 45 of the Magistrate's Courts Act 32 of 1944, to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate's Court that, according to section 28, has jurisdiction over his person, irrespective of the fact that the amount to be exacted or the value of the right that is to be protected exceeds the legal competence of the Magistrate's Court; and	8.2	I undertake to pay all the costs of such action on the scale as between attorney and client.
